As restrictions ease and music fans look to a summer of more fun, QMusic and the brains behind BIGSOUND have teamed up for the ultimate end-of-year party on November 28; one last chance to say 'F@#K off!' to 2021, and hello to 2022!

Kicking off BIGSOUND's 21st birthday celebrations, BIG SUMMER BLOCK PARTY is a free, all out blow-out closing off Fortitude Valley's Warner Street for five hours of non-stop music, food trucks, pop up bars, local DJs; and 21 of Queensland's hottest acts taking to the stages in 7 of the city's most beloved venues.

The inaugural lineup features hit BIGSOUND showcasing alumni Eves Karydas, First Beige, Jesswar, Sampology, Golden Vessel, Clea, Eliza & The Delusionals and LÂLKA; as well as a selection of the sunshine state's most exciting new artists like LISI, THE RIOT, dameeeela and more.

BIGSOUND Festival co-programmer, Ruby-Jean McCabe said, "Cancelling BIGSOUND this year was devastating for us all, so being able to curate a lineup of Queensland's past BIGSOUND showcasing artists and those we believe are the future of BIGSOUND was a real treat for Dom [Miller] and I! It's a celebration of the incredible talent we have in this state, and a sneak peek of what BIGSOUND 2022 could hold."

QMusic CEO Kris Stewart said, "With the clouds of COVID slowly starting to part, BIG SUMMER BLOCK PARTY is the perfect opportunity for the music industry and music fans to send out a year that sucked and welcome in a year that won't!"
