 - (i) the chair of the meeting does not have a casting vote; and
 - (ii) the proposed resolution is taken as lost.
- (c) A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is demanded:

- (c) On a show of hands, where the chair of a general meeting has two or more appointments that specify different ways to vote on a resolution, the chair of the meeting must not vote as a proxy.
- (d) At any meeting, unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chair of the meeting that a resolution has been passed or lost, having regard to the majority required, and an entry to that effect in the book to be kept of the proceedings of the Company signed by the chair of that or the next succeeding meeting, is conclusive evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

- (b) Subject to rules 11.3 and 11.4, if a poll is held on a resolution, votes cast by direct vote by a Member entitled to vote on the resolution are taken to have been cast on the poll as if the Member had cast the votes on the poll at the meeting, and the votes of the Member are to be counted accordingly.
- (c) A direct vote received by the Company on a resolution is taken to be a direct vote on that resolution as amended, if the chair of the meeting decides this is appropriate.

- (c) where the direct vote is cast on behalf of the Member by an attorney, revokes the appointment of the attorney or the authority under which the appointment was made by a third party, unless the Company has received written notice of the matter before the start or resumption of the meeting at which the vote is cast.

12 Variation of rights of Members

While the membership is divided into different classes, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise set out in application for membership of that class) may, whether or not the Company is being wound up, be varied with the consent in writing of Members with at least 75% of the votes in the class, or by Special Resolution passed at a separate meeting of the Members of that class.
